
ACCIÓ's third call of its TECNIOspring PLUS is open to companies

ACCIÓ (the Catalan Agency for Business Competitiveness) has opened the third call of its TECNIOspring PLUS programme on June 2 and will close it on September 28.

This programme provides 100% financial support to individual mobility proposals presented by experienced researchers in liaison with any R&D entity around the world. It offers two types of fellowships, incoming and outgoing.

The financial support is divided into salary costs, research costs and mobility costs.

All the information about the programme and the open call can be found at www.tecniospring.eu. If you need any further information, do not hesitate to contact tecniospring.accio@gencat.cat
