This webinar will provide you with a basic description and explanation of the copyright changes introduced by the new Directive 2019/790 on copyright and related rights in the Digital Single Market.

Learning Objectives

After the training, participants should be able to answer the following main questions:

- What is the new text and data mining exception? How does it apply to?

- What are the requirements to benefit from the exception for digital cross-border teaching activities?
 - What are cultural heritage institutions allowed to do?
 - What does the new right granted to press publications imply?
 - How will article 17 impact service providers and users?
 - What is the "best-seller" right?
 - What is the right of revocation? Why could it be relevant to me
