
Kraków Intellectual Property Law Summer School

Date:

Monday, 17.09.2018 - Saturday, 22.09.2018

Location:

Krakow, Poland

Host:

Jagiellonian University

The Jagiellonian University invites undergraduate, graduate and postgraduate (PhD) law students as well as young professionals to the 2018 Kraków Intellectual Property Law Summer School. The programme will take place from September 17 to 22, 2018. The programme will be conducted in English.

The 2018 Kraków Intellectual Property Law Summer School programme provides an opportunity to acquire deeper knowledge of intellectual property law. This year the topic of the Summer School will be "Manoeuvring between limitations, exceptions and infringements of IPRs". The programme will consist of lectures of the keynote speakers and guest lecturers, including well-known professionals in the area of intellectual property from foreign universities and several Polish universities, as well as workshops, case studies, group discussions on selected topics relating to IPR limitations, exceptions and infringements.

The deadline for registration is July 31, 2018. An early bird rate applies for registration made before May 28, 2018.

For further information on the programme and to register, please visit the webpage of the Kraków Intellectual Property Law Summer School.

Calendar